

The Under 25 BMSIT&M Summit held on 3rd December 2022 was a day filled with activities to promote positive youth culture.

The day started off with deals arena (taking place at the basketball court) soon after the registration which had a compilation of small games (both offline and online) and the winners got to take home a cash prize along with some exciting goodies.

Following this, we had the main summit taking place at the Amphitheatre where we had 10 thought leaders engaging the audience in various areas!

We had some encouraging words by shreyans followed by a live music performance by Frizzell D'souza an exciting upliftment of mood by the talented DBC (Da Beatboxing crew) and their very exhilarating performance!

We had a gamers panel discussing about gaming culture and career.

Followed by a session with Aishwarya Suresh and her mesmerizing voice!

We had Mac macha and Vividh (thekurtaguy) talk about social media, acting and more!

Following this we had one of india's best hip hop rapper BRODHA V share some insights and perform one of his piece for us.

The day ended with the very talented Disha Madan engaging herself with the audience!
