Mr. Aranya Khinvasara, alumni of Electrical and Electronics Engineering Department of 2015 graduating batch, has given a technical talk on 04th Nov 2017, titled “Role of personal finance and Management”.

Aranya started the session by posing questions to students based on Indian economy, GDP, imports exports, “make in India” initiatives, GST etc.

Students had an engaging discussion with the speaker regarding the above topics.

In the second half of the session, Aranya spoke about the importance of “Saving”. He informed the students about the power of mutual funds, SIP’s and investing in stocks. He also spoke about the differences between conventional saving schemes like FD, PF’s, PPF’s with SIP and mutual funds. Questions posed by the audience were well answered by the speaker.

At the end the session, Aranya demonstrated the saving chart with excel sheet and also explained about riskometer terminology used in mutual funds.

He concluded the talk by emphasising “start saving at the young age and don’t hesitate to explore the saving potentials in mutual funds”
